

CV of Prof. Dr. TÜRKKAYA ATAÖV

Born in 1932 in Gelibolu (Gallipoli), Turkey, married; two daughters (architect & academic). Degrees: B.A. (Humanities, Robert College, 1951), M.A. (International Relations, Syracuse University). M.A. (Economics, New York University) and Ph.D. (Political Science, Maxwell Graduate School, Syracuse University, New York. 1959). Mother tongue Turkish: best foreign language: English (Also studied some other languages).

Profession: university teaching, academic research and journalism. Taught/lectured at Ankara University (four decades). Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Relations (Summer 1957), Harvard University (Summer 1958), Jawaharlal Nehru University (1980), Soviet Academy of Sciences (1970-1972), among others. Taught courses in: Hist of Civilizations. Int. Pol. Org. The Middle East, Africa. Islam and Foreign Policy, World Minorities, The Formation of Nations and States, Russian-Soviet Policies. US Foreign Policy, World Changes in Eastern Europe, The UN, Disputed Frontiers Armenian-Turkish Relations...

Present international positions membership in central Executive Councils of five international organizations/groups against racial discrimination (Geneva); for Palestinian rights (Vienna); against terrorism (Washington, D.C.), against nuclear war (Moscow): and for repatriation of prisoners of war (Vienna). Former Executive Council member of the Turkish Teachers Union (1966).

Author of close to 130 books, a few hundred published academic treatises a few thousand newspaper articles. Wrote in 97 journals/dailies. Translated into of a total of twenty foreign languages, Works published in the Americas (in 3 countries), Europe (14 countries), Asia (9 countries), Africa (3 countries) and in Australia.

Some published book titles: Discrimination and Conflict (Geneva), Kashmir and Neighbours (London), SShA, Nato i Turtsiia (Moscow), The Inquisition of the Late 1980s: The Turks of Bulgaria (Washington D.C.), L'Utilisation des eaux palestiniennes et le droit international (Quebec). Turkish Foreign Policy: New Prospects (co-author, London), NATO and Turkey (Ankara), The Case in South Africa (London) Turkish Foreign Policy: 1939-1945 (Ankara), Turkey in the U.N., (co-author, Ankara), Turkey and Europe (co-author, London), African National Liberation Movements (in Turkish, Ankara), The Turkish Yearbook of International Relations (ed., 1961, 1981-1995), The Lockerbie Case (Ang., Er., Sp.), The Armenians in the Late Ottoman Period (ed., Ankara) Asian Relations (co-author, New Delhi), The Reagan Administration's Foreign Policy (co-author, Vienna), The Legal Aspects of the Palestine Problem (co-author, Vienna), Democracy and Terrorism (co-author, New Delhi), Az Embargók és az Erindett Harmadik Országok (Budapest). The Second World War (Ankara), The Need to Disarm (Ankara), Indo-Turkish Relations (ed., Ankara), Turkish Painting (Bucharest), Pictura Turca (Bucharest), University and Academic Freedom (co-author, Republic of South Africa), Turkish translations of Lord Bryce's The American Commonwealth and William Saroyan's My Name is Aram and the like. The latest: 9/11: Discrimination in Response (Geneva) In preparation: Palestine Reconsidered.

Awards: Italian Presidential Medal of Knighthood: Yugoslav Presidential Medal of Golden Wrath: Potchyotnaya Garamota Award of the Russian Acad of Sci.; Academic Award of the Univ. of Bophuthatswana Rep. of South Africa; Palestinian Medal of Honor; Cuban Felix Elmusa Medal; of Culture; UN Special Peace Award (shared) IPO (UN) Golden Medal of Honour; Macedonian Medal of Historical Research; Shield of India; Afghan Medal: 1989 Shield of the Turkish Grand National Assembly; Shield of Selçuk University, Shield of İnönü University, Award of the Kadıköy (Istanbul) Municipality (for Contribution to Republican and Democratic Principles)...